GREEN DREAM COMES TRUE

AN ANFIELD resident has had his dream come true after being given his own garden for the very first time.

Ian Wood, who turns 50 this month, has always lived on Hayfield Street, so he has never had a backyard to grow up in and he said he has always dreamt of owning a garden.

He inherited the terrace house from his auntie, and at one point, Ian, his parents, grandparents and auntie all lived on the same street, next door to each other.

His childhood property which became dilapidated and expensive to heat, is now set to be demolished along with the neighbouring properties, to allow room for the council's proposed regeneration plans.

Due to this redevelopment scheme, Ian has now moved into a brand new home at Keepmoat's housing area, The Parks. The newly developed houses are located on Robson Street, which is less than a mile away from Ian's former home.

His two bedroom home now has economical central heating, spacious rooms and a garden for Ian to potter about in and take care of.

He said: "The difference it has made to my quality of life is just unbelievable.

"In the old house, I only had gas fired heaters on the walls, and it was incredibly draughty, so I tended to stay in just one room and try to keep that warm. I can now afford to heat the whole house, which has made such a difference.

"The house is beautiful, and having a garden to look out on, after all these years of only having a tiny back yard, is really quite something.

"I'm just about to turn fifty, and it feels like I've opened a whole new chapter in my life.

"But there's definitely some sadness that goes along with leaving a house you've grown up in, as it is so full of memories, but I feel really excited about the future now.

"I've only moved down the road, but it feels like I've moved to another world."

The location of his new home is just a couple of minutes walk from Anfield and Goodison Park.

A show home has been opened at the scheme to give prospective buyers an idea of what the 97 properties on sale in the area have to offer, providing a ideal home for first time buyers or families looking for more room.

Jen Brown, sales director at Keepmoat, said: "We're really pleased for Ian. He's a great guy and we know that his new home will make a big difference to his lifestyle. The properties are all designed with high levels of insulation, double glazing and energy efficient boilers, so they are economical to run, as well as providing lots of style and space.

"The development continues to attract a lot of interest from first time buyers, professional couples and families looking for extra space.

Lots of people who come to look around are genuinely amazed at just how much they can get for their money."

The Government-backed Help to Buy scheme which has recently been launched, helps people afford their own home and is available through Keepmoat homes.

Initially it means purchasers need only need a 5% deposit on a home and a mortgage for 75% of the property price, the remaining property price is covered by a equity loan.

Name of new £25m health facility unveiled

by Holly Rummens

PLANS for a new £25 million mental health inpatient facility have forged ahead with the unveiling of its new name by Mersey Care NHS Trust.

The new inpatient unit is being built at the former Walton Hospital in Liverpool and plans to be open in two years' time.

Chairman of the specialist mental health trust, Beatrice Fraenkel was joined by community representatives and children from Northcote Primary School where they unveiled the new name of the facility.

It has been named Clock View, which was chosen out of 50 suggestions made by staff, patients and their families. Clock View is a name that pays respect to the sites history and the well-known North Liverpool Victorian landmark Clock Tower.

Beatrice said: "I am delighted to mark the official start of construction on this project. It is remarkable that

Cllr Richard McLinden, Beatrice Fraenkel chairman of Mersey Care NHS Trust, Walton MP Steve Rotheram and Cllr Ann OByrne at the launch Code1058582

Liverpool will be a city with three new hospitals in the making, for children at Alder Hey, adults at the Royal and mental health at Clock View."

The new hospital off Rice Lane, Walton, will provide short-term inpatient care for local people and will treat adults with a range of common mental illnesses including depression and anxiety.

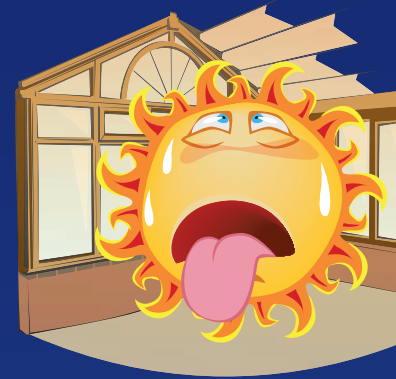

Mersey Care's chief executive Joe Rafferty said: "This is an historic moment for the people of Liverpool, Sefton and Kirkby, who deserve modern, high quality healthcare in accommodation which will be one of the best in the country. We have involved staff and patients at the design stage to ensure we build a new inpatient facility that will do exactly what is most needed."

Steve Rotheram, MP for Liverpool Walton, who attended, said: "This new facility will bring much needed jobs to the area and improve mental health services."

Couple's dancewear designs go global!

Report by Holly Rummens

A CROSBY couple who launched a dancewear brand from their own kitchen table two years ago have seen demand for their products expand worldwide.

David Birchall and Celia Thornley, created their own dancewear business, Bebop Dancewear Ltd in March, 2011 after Ms Thornley became redundant from her fashion and textiles business advisor position.

Since then they have grown from strength to strength, and having originally only supplied children's dancewear they now cater for all genres of dance clothing for all sizes.

Mr Birchall, who works for Knowsley Library Services said: "Our aim was to create a new brand of dancewear that would appeal to a market looking for unique designs and quality garments without the bespoke price tags." Bebop Dancewear Ltd are funded almost entirely from their own personal resources, with the support of family and friends.

They supply products via their online store to individuals, dance troupes and teams worldwide. Their main clients include local dance troupes and cheerleaders, but also a dance school in Spain and a Malaysian ballet troupe as well as dance groups in the USA and Australia.

David added: "We can honestly say that Crosby based Bebop Dancewear Ltd are a truly global business with a truly local heart."

The dancewear company have also had their designs showcased at events including Liverpool Unites in Dance at the BT Convention Centre and Liverpool Community College Fashion Show at St George's Hall.

The couple would like to work with local colleges to involve students interested in pursuing a career in fashion and textiles, to help people learn about their passion. To find out more visit www.bebopdancewear.com or call 0151 924 5647.

Police appeal after stabbing outside off licence

A MAN was found stabbed outside a Liverpool off licence.

Emergency services were called to the incident outside Boozemaster on Oakfield Road, Anfield after reports that a 23 year old male was found with multiple stab wounds to his arms and a slash across his left eye.

The man was seen by paramedics at the scene before being taken to Liverpool Heart and Chest Hospital where he was treated for the knife wounds. His injury was not life threatening.

Following the incident, Oakfield Road and surrounding junctions at Valley Road and Thirlmere Road were closed off while investigation teams carried out further examinations of the scene.

The motive for the incident is unclear.

Detective Inspector Martin Earl said: "Oakfield Road would have been busy at this time of the evening and I am appealing for anyone who might have witnessed this incident, or anyone who has any information about it, to come forward."

"Our inquiries are continuing in the area - CCTV is being examined and house to house enquiries carried out, but I would ask members of the community with any information, no matter how small to get in contact so we can bring the person responsible for this incident to justice."

Police patrols were stepped up in the area and house to house enquires where carried out.

Anyone with any information can contact St Anne Street CID on 0151 777 4064 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Angry reaction to end of meals on wheels service

'It's an all-time low' fumes one resident

by Ollie Cowan

RESIDENTS in Sefton have reacted angrily to Sefton Council's announcement they are ceasing to provide a meals on wheels service.

The Champion published the decision earlier this month and since has been inundated with angry responses condemning the decision.

As a result of reductions in government funding and massive savings being made, some council services have been reduced or cut completely – including the community meals service.

Letters were sent out to people who received the meals on wheels on April 17. It informed them that the council would no longer carry on supplying the service and instead highlight a list of alternatives, which included Sainsbury's and Coffee mornings.

However suggestions that service users turn to supermarkets or microwave meals has been branded as ridiculous.

"Many people can not get to a microwave due to mobility restrictions," said one Churchtown resident, Joy Lilley.

"Wake up social services – look at our growing older population. One day it could be you."

Another Sefton resident, Mrs J Findlay, told The Champion: "I am astounded to hear that Sefton Council has sunk to an all time low."

"Just how are the house bound expected to get to Sainsbury's or a coffee morning as suggested as an alternative."

"The service is more about providing meals to these disadvantaged people but is sometimes the only human contact these people experience."

"I believe Sefton now has 81 managers on £50,000 plus a year. Could I not suggest that the cuts start there instead of picking on the most vulnerable in our society, who are unable to stand up for themselves."

A spokesman for Sefton Council previously said: "A decision was taken as part of this year's budget savings to no longer provide the Community Meals Service."

"Letters have recently been sent to the 300 or so service users who currently pay us for their meals informing them that the service will end on June 30."

"The information provided clearly directs service users to an extensive list of alternative meal providers, at similar cost, and should hopefully give them plenty of time to put new plans into place."

"Similar information will also be sent to people enquiring about the service in the future."

"Anyone who requires further advice or assistance regarding the Community Meals Service should call the Social Care Customer Access Team on 0845 140 0845."

Mastermind father and son team behind multi-million pound drug crime get 31 years in jail

Christopher Welsh Snr mastermind behind a drugs traffic plot. Code NA

Christopher Welsh Jnr sentenced to 16 years for a drugs traffic scheme. Code NA

NINE gang members, including two from Anfield, were sentenced to a total of 119 years imprisonment yesterday (Tuesday, May 14) after trafficking millions of pounds of cocaine and heroin to Scotland.

Father and son criminals, Christopher Welsh Snr, 55 from Paley Close, Anfield received 15 years and four months behind bars whilst his son Christopher Welsh Jnr, 34 got 16 years and eight months, they are believed to be the main masterminds behind the scheme which is supposed to be worth between £100 to £200million.

Mark Shields, aged 45 from Bluebell Close, Kirkby, who was also found to be a significant member of the gang was jailed for 14 years and eight months.

Six other members from across the Liverpool area including Everton and Walton have also been sentenced to up to 10 years for their involvement in the plot as either couriers or safe houses.

Detective Superintendent Jason Hudson, head of operations at TITAN (North-West Regional Organised Crime Unit), said the prison sentences should serve as a warning to other criminal gangs operating in the region.

He said: "This gang were responsible for flooding the streets of Glasgow with incredibly dangerous and damaging Class A drugs, profiting from other people's misery in the process."

The rest will be sentenced this week.

Stolen car contained student's vital GCSE coursework

A FAMILY from Anfield are appealing to the local community to help them find their stolen car. The car contained vital art GCSE coursework belonging to the owner's daughter.

Christine Penman, is asking people in the area to keep a 'close eye out' for her orange Ford Fiesta, registration number YP61 NJF after it was taken by thieves last Sunday.

It was reported stolen from Cherry Lane in the Anfield area sometime during the night.

The family are mostly concerned about their daughter's work as it makes up for 60% of her overall pass grade. The daughter Ellis, 15, went into Aslop high school during the Easter holidays to ensure it was completed in time for the deadline next week.

Christine added: "I am hoping the car has just been left abandoned somewhere, after it had been taken."

If anyone has any information on the stolen car, the family are appealing to them to get in touch through the police.

Group are 'tracing rainbows through the rain' to help others

Report by Stephanie O'Connor

A GROUP of inspirational women are launching a number of events they are hoping will engage the local community in a 'positive and productive way.'

The group, which are based at Orrell Park Community Centre are called Inspirational Rainbows. They came up with the name after one member went through a particularly difficult time.

A spokesperson for the group said: "The title came about when one of our group had a very upsetting experience and a friend said to her 'I hope you can Trace The Rainbow Through The Rain'.

"We all decided on our group name, and that was to be our motto 'Tracing Rainbows Through The Rain'.

"Between us we have had many life changing experiences, some good, some devastating, but we believe no experience is ever wasted. This is what we describe as having some "Rain" in our lives.

Supporting

"Through supporting each other and engaging in our various crafts, we have found a kind of therapeutic environment, and our aim is to share this with others eventually.

"As a group, we do stalls in local craft fairs to raise money for our group to start up as a non profit organisation, so we can share our dreams with others.

"We have decided to use our community centre as a venue for a farmers market, in order to bring some local producers to our community, and also to promote healthy eating, and variety of produce in the area."

The Inspirational Rainbows will be holding the farmers markets monthly, with the first being held on May 18 from 10am to 4pm with stalls selling breads, cheeses and meats.

And they will also be hosting craft fairs every three months.

They aim to have local crafters stalls, with no duplication of crafts so there is greater variety and a better selling environment for the crafters.

Man fell asleep while cooking

A MAN was woken up by firefighters to find he had left food cooking while he fell asleep and his home had been on fire.

Yesterday morning (Tuesday, May 14) a smoke alarm alerted a neighbour who called the fire brigade to his home on Bedford Road.

Firefighters managed to wake the occupant up by knocking on his door but luckily by then the fire had extinguished itself.

Watch manager Bob Tyrer, said: "Smoke from cooking fires can disorientate people and cause unconsciousness."

Man caught with neighbour's TV

A MAN who stole his neighbour's TV was caught after he was spotted by police carrying it in the street.

Anthony McCowen, 32, of Baliol Road, Bootle, was with another male at 10.15 pm on the night of January 14, when stopped with the Sanyo TV.

He told the police that it was his and he was retrieving it after lending it to a friend "Shanza" on Gonvale Road.

Police visited the address of "Shanza" and were informed that McCowen had asked her to store the TV at her address but that she'd refused saying, "She did not want to get involved."

On attending McCowen's flat on Baliol Road, they noticed the door to the next door flat had been forced and when they entered they noticed an empty TV stand and a Sanyo TV instruction booklet.

Prosecutor Andrew Page said that during an interview on January 15, McCowen "told police he had been in his flat and heard a bang. He caught someone running and he gave chase." The TV was abandoned and "he said he picked it up and carried it back.

"When he was stopped by police he just panicked and said it was his."

However, McCowen pleaded guilty to burglary and theft at Sefton Magistrates on May 9.

His defence solicitor said: "He has not done himself any favours. He ought to have admitted it straight away."

"He is full of remorse and upset at the distress caused to the complainant, Mr Moss, who has since moved away."

The magistrates adjourned sentencing until May 30 after a stand-down probation report revealed he has issues with alcohol.

SCHOOLCHILDREN and parents across Merseyside are being encouraged to get fit and join in with Walk to School Week, from May 20 to 24 which aims to create healthier, happier and greener schools by encouraging the school community to walk to and from school.

Councillor Liam Robinson, chair of Merseytravel said: "This is the sixth year our TravelWise campaign has promoted Walk to School Week and each year it seems to become more popular."

"Walking to school can help to develop a child's road sense and a 20-minute walk burns around 100 calories, helping pupils to start the day energised and alert."

Awards honour for adoption charity

A SEFTON based charity is celebrating after being 'highly commended' at an awards ceremony.

Adoption Matters Northwest (AMNW) were recognised for their work at the 2013 Social Impact Awards.

The event, hosted by BBC presenter Andy Crane, celebrates and rewards charities, not-for-profit and social enterprise organisations for their outstanding contributions to local communities.

AMNW was the runner-up in the 'Large Charity of the Year' category, and the first ever runner-up to be 'Highly Commended'.

AMNW was honoured at the event, which was held recently at The Comedy Store in Manchester, for its work across the North West in finding, preparing and supporting couples and individuals in adopting young people who can no longer live with their birth parents.

On accepting the award, AMNW Chief Executive Norman Goodwin said: "It's a huge honour to be recognised in such a competitive category. Having started out as such a small charity, it's exciting to see the agency grow each year thanks to the hard work of all our employees and volunteers."

"I'm very proud of the entire team here at Adoption Matters Northwest and it's great to see all their hard work rewarded. I hope that this will help to encourage people within our community to take that initial step towards offering a child a new, loving and stable home."

JAMIE Carragher might be retiring from football empty handed this season but his trophy-winning legacy is living on at his former school's football team.

The Year 1 football team also triumphed in the Everton Football Club Academy Tournament.

PE teacher Chris Tyson said: "It has been a fantastic and very successful year of football for All Saints Catholic Primary School, with the Year 6 football team being the major success story of the season. This is the first time the school has won a trophy since the merging in 2007.

"The last time any of the three schools achieved football success was St. James' in 1994. The team will attend a presentation evening at Bootle Town Hall in July with all of the boys receiving individual awards for their achievements as well as the league and cup trophies."

MP raises his hat to CAP service

by Jim Sharpe

THE work of Christians Against Poverty (CAP) in North Liverpool and South Sefton has been praised by an MP.

Bill Esterson MP was speaking after meeting Lynda Cooper, at his surgery in Maghull.

Lynda, 49, runs the CAP service in the two areas. It gives advice on debt management and visit people who ask for help, going through details of debts and discuss possible arrangements for repayment.

CAP can arrange Debt Relief Orders – which enables most people to find a way of clearing debts – or in some cases, bankruptcy is considered.

The MP said he was impressed with the counselling advice given by CAP. "More and more people tell me they face financial difficulties and it is extremely important that there is someone to help. Lynda asked to come to my surgery so she could tell me about her work – and I was very impressed.

"The experience of the CAP with the support of their head office in Bradford, means that people with money difficulties have someone to turn to," he said.

CAP speaks directly to banks and other creditors and takes away some of the stress of managing debts which often cannot be paid without some kind of arrangement.

"Lynda clearly cares very much and I thank her and her colleagues for what they do," he said.

"She also told me about a typical situation for a family who need a Debt Relief Order. Often they take out a Payday Loan, often for as little as £100. But because they can't, or don't, make a full repayment, within a few months that loan is worth £800 or more. So another aspect of the CAP's work in debt counselling."

Lynda told Mr Esterson that she has seen a sharp increase in the number of people needing help with people who have lost their job or seen their business collapse coming with debt problems. She said these days it is no longer just the poorest who are turning to CAP for help.

"It used to be the poorest, most vulnerable people who asked for help," she said. "Now there is a new group who never asked for help before, including home owners who cannot pay the mortgage."

Fire safety advice for homeowners

Merseyside Fire and Rescue teams were called to a flat on Downing Street, Everton after a fire on the ground floor broke out.

A 42 year old male and 64 year old female were given oxygen by fire fighters, both suffered slight smoke inhalation, but declined hospital treatment.

Fire rescue services were called out just before 4.45am and the fire was extinguished by 5.15am.

A bedroom and hallway of the flat were severely damaged by the fire and the remainder of the property was damaged by heat.

The fire spread to a first floor flat, where a window frame was damaged by fire and the remainder of the flat was damaged by smoke.

Hard wired smoke alarms had been fitted at both properties and activated.

The MF&RS Incident Investigation Team was called out and the fire is believed to have been accidental and to have been caused by smoking materials.

A reassurance campaign is being arranged in the area in which Merseyside Fire & Rescue Service staff will visit homes and offer fire safety advice.

Season tickets snapped up for next season

PHIL Jagielka has thanked the thousands of Evertonians who have snapped up their Season Tickets for the 2013/14 campaign.

Over 20,000 supporters have already secured their seat at Goodison Park for every Premier League game next season and with Season Ticket sales up by more than 3% on last year's figures, the Blues' deputy captain has praised the commitment of Evertonians.

Jagielka said: "Goodison Park is a ground that a lot of teams don't relish coming to and part of the reason is the atmosphere generated by our fans.

"Their loyalty and passion is second to none and the commitment shown once again by our Season Ticket holders is tremendous," added Jagielka.

The number of supporters committing to another season at Goodison Park has increased right across the board with more juniors, adults and OAP's securing their seat than at the same time last year.

To buy your Season Ticket, visit the Box Office at Goodison Park, call 0871 663 1878 or visit evertonfc.com/seasontickets. Alternatively you can visit the ticket desk upstairs at Everton Two, Liverpool One.

Groups invited to apply for funding from grant scheme

COMMUNITY groups and voluntary organisations in parts of south Sefton can now apply for support from the latest round of funding from a Government grant scheme.

Last year two electoral wards in the area – Litherland and Ford – were successful in securing money from the Community First programme, a new national initiative to boost social action at local level.

Now groups in these areas can apply for grants from £250 up to £2,500 from the 2013/14 allocation to cover the cost of equipment, training and putting on events.

Sefton CVS runs the scheme and decisions on who receives funding is made by panels in each area.

These panels have already drawn up a number of priorities for the funding, following consultation with residents and the development of a community plan.

In Ford Ward the priorities are reducing anti-social behaviour, reducing the impact of welfare reform, environmental projects and increasing the range of activities available to children, young people and older people.

In Litherland Ward the priorities are increasing activities for children and young people, environmental improvements, improving the health and wellbeing of residents, reducing the impact of welfare reform and reducing anti-social behaviour linked to gangs and drugs.

Sefton CVS has organised a drop-in session to provide groups with advice on making applications to the Community First grant scheme.

This will be held at Litherland Youth and Community Centre, 41 Sefton Road, Litherland L21 9HD from 10am to 3pm on Wednesday, May 29.

Samantha Smith, of Sefton CVS, said: "Securing adequate funding is an ongoing problem for community groups and this is particularly true in the current difficult economic climate."

Seasonal Park and Ride service open

Southport's seasonal park and ride service is open during weekends, school holidays and public holidays.

Kew Park and Ride is aimed at motorists from Maghull, Ormskirk, West Lancashire and beyond – and is based off the A570 at Foul Lane, near Kew roundabout.

At just £1.50 per car – per day, the facility is one of the cheapest in the country with frequent buses running into the town centre. It also boasts a modern visitor centre with indoor waiting area, toilets and baby changing facilities.

The service operates during weekends and school/public holidays until Sunday, September 29, 2013. When open, the operating hours are Monday to Saturday, 8.30am-6.30pm, and 10am-6.30pm on Sundays and Bank Holidays.

Further information on opening times and dates is available at www.visitseftonandwestlancs.co.uk

Kew Park and Ride has re-opened thanks to a successful bid for external funding from the Department for Transport's Local Sustainable Transport Fund. This is being delivered through the VISIT project – 'Visitors In Sustainable Integrated Transport.'

Thanks to external, ring-fenced funding we are again able to open Kew Park and Ride to support the Southport visitor economy during peak periods. Southport is a very important tourism and shopping destination and this inevitably causes some traffic congestion at busier times. Kew Park and Ride reduces traffic in the resort and offers a cheaper and stress-free alternative to parking in the town centre. If people are travelling in along the A570 I would really encourage them to follow the signs and try out this excellent facility.

Charity can help exam stress pupils

Report by Holly Rummens

WITH the stress of school exams fast approaching this summer local charities are stepping in to give pupils some helpful advice on how to cope with revision.

ChildLine is reminding teenagers that help is available if they ever feel anxious or worried about exams, after nearly 300 calls about exam pressure were made last year to the Liverpool ChildLine base.

Ann Pulling, ChildLine area manager said: "The exam period can be a very stressful and anxious time for young people.

"We hear from lots of young people each year who are anxious, worried or panicking about their exams and revision. We want to let them know that they are not alone and that ChildLine is here to listen to them."

To help children and young people cope with exams and combat anxiety, ChildLine are offering advice for young people to help overcome pre-exam nerves and help them if they have any concerns.

To find out all the information you need to know visit the ChildLine website and visit the 'Beat exam stress' section on www.childline.org.uk or call on their ChildLine free confidential helpline on 0800 11 11.

Students taking exams. Code1058695

The charity is also offering advice for parents and carers to help ease young peoples exam stress during the summer months.

Still time to bid for share of housing group's £35k community cash pot

SEFTON residents, community groups and voluntary organisations are still in with a chance of sharing a £35,000 grant for neighbourhood projects.

Adactus Housing Group is urging people to submit bids for projects that will benefit communities across Sefton. Last year's Neighbourhood Fund supported numerous local projects that included healthy living sessions, improvements to communal gardens, community clean up days and activities for young people. Applications to the fund, now in its fourth year, are judged by a group of local residents who have the final say in which projects are awarded funding by the scheme.

The deadline to make a bid is May 17. For details go to www.adactushousing.co.uk or call 01257 244 800.

Plea to smokers who light up around babies

by Ollie Cowan

TO mark 'Save a Baby Month' stop smoking' advisors are reminding people of the dangers of smoking around babies and young children.

Evidence from a large number of studies has shown that maternal smoking, either during pregnancy or after the baby is born, significantly increases the risk of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome.

Smoking during pregnancy can also increase the risk of miscarriage, stillbirth, premature birth and low birth weight.

Colette Kearney, team leader for Sefton's local stop smoking team, SUPPORT said: "Whenever you smoke, you inhale over 4,000 chemicals in every cigarette.

"Many of these are toxic and can seriously harm your unborn baby's healthy growth and development – so stopping smoking is a really important way to protect your unborn child."

Partners, family members and friends are also being warned of the effects of second hand smoke around pregnant women, as part of Save a Baby Month.

Second hand smoke is involuntary breathing in other people's smoke. Over 80% of second hand smoke is invisible and odourless.

This means that if you are smoking around someone who is pregnant, you are also exposing their unborn baby to the toxic chemicals in second hand smoke.

Colette added: "Giving up smoking is without doubt, the single most important thing you can do to improve your own health and the health of your unborn baby."

"Our friendly team offers non-judgmental advice and support to anyone considering stopping smoking, and would urge all mums and mums-to-be to get in touch for help."

"Partners and family members are also welcome to receive support and encouragement to quit and provide a smoke free home for the whole family."

For free advice on the best way to stop smoking, call SUPPORT on 0300 100 1000.

Give residents credit for relief road campaign

Our MP Bill Esterson is telling everyone it was him that got the Thornton Relief road going again, when it was looking like it was not going to happen.

But the new road has never been in any serious doubt what so ever since the Coalition Government gave it the green light following Labour, when they were in government, giving it no more than an amber light.

But the real heroes of this campaign are not MPs or even borough councillors.

It was the residents of Thornton and their parish council. It was they who resurrected the campaign when they organised a mass march to wake up Sefton Council who thought it could never get the road built.

I was on that march and a great day it was too; the start of what was to be a successful last push after years and years of the project going nowhere.

So let us celebrate for sure, but I would like to give some good advice to our MP. Stop trying to get the credit for Thornton residents hard work!

Jack Darbyshire, Thornton

Time to remember the Aden Emergency

In these days of solemnly remembering past tragedies and disasters both military and civilian, out of respect for the families of the fallen, I would like to draw attention to the approaching anniversary of a largely forgotten episode in British history.

On June 20, 1967, during the Aden Emergency, 22 British soldiers were killed and 27 badly wounded in separate incidents in and around the Crater district of Aden within the space of a few hours. I was there at the time.

These outrages were carried out by members of the Armed Adeni security forces who had been trained and equipped by us.

Lieutenant Colonel Colin 'Mad Mitch' Mitchell, with the Argyle and Sutherland Highlanders, eventually restored a relative calm but the future planned grant of independence to Aden in 1968 was brought forward to November 1967, as a result.

After this Aden became a training ground for international terrorism.

Jim Finn, Crosby

Legal aid is tool to generate revenue

I was saddened to read in the Champion that Maxwell Hodge found it necessary to have issued a Legal Aid warning regarding the service they provide.

It may have carried more weight, however, if they had expressed concern as to the effect the cuts will have on their income paid by the public purse.

Personally, I would like to see Legal Aid offered to every defendant in both civil and criminal cases, paid retrospectively if, and only if, the party is deemed to be right in the case of civil claims, or the defendant is found not guilty in criminal cases.

Fees should be paid to the legal representative and then perhaps savings will be found and justifiable claimants enjoy the benefit.

The legal aid system has for too long been a tool to generate revenue for the profession. It's time for change.

Happiness in a simple life

I could not agree more with Mark Holt's letter (April 17) about greedy bankers and their over-inflated pension pots.

Although Mark's comments are a bit tongue in cheek they portray one of the worst traits of human beings, and that is greed.

The buffoons who are running this once-great country have over-inflated notions of their self-worth.

They maintain this falsehood by heaping praise upon the most undeserving figures in public service to augment themselves.

Any high school kid could run a bank, and gambling with other people's cash is neither risky nor virtuous.

The time has now come for all of us to speak up. If you are one of the privileged classes, just ask your bin man or local postie what their hours and conditions are like nowadays.

I have no religious belief whatever, but I believe that the Messiah's message was profound.

True happiness and inner peace can be found in living a simple life (bin those expensive gadgets) and by caring for/ loving those nearest to us.

There are abundant resources for all on our lovely planet.

Sadly some of our masters want it all.

Outdoor gym waste of funds

Re: the article on 'outdoor gym'.

I am absolutely appalled that Sefton Council have found funds for this glorified playground that will be probably be destroyed in virtually no time, but have withdrawn funds to provide essential services to the most vulnerable in the community.

Disgusted, By email

At least you reported it

I read with interest Mr McLelland's letter in The Champion (May 8) criticising your report on the presence of campaigners for traditional marriage in Waterloo (April 24).

I must say in your defence, at least The Champion reported the event!

The BBC, that supposed unbiased media, did not report to my knowledge when 300 people knocked on Mr Cameron's door to present a petition to keep traditional marriage.

Also, when tens of thousands of French citizens demonstrated in Paris where were the BBC reporters?

AJ Leek, By email

Wrong priorities on the Square

I too was appalled at Maghull Developments' attitude to the animal charity stall on Central Square, saying it was an eyesore.

The people who run the stall are very caring, loving people who give up there Saturdays for a good cause and are doing no harm.

What is an eyesore are the people who sit around the square on the pavements begging for money.

I find this far more annoying than a charity stall that's doing a worthwhile job.

Get your priorities right MD and show the people of Maghull you do have a heart.

You don't really need an SUV just to get to Tesco

YOU may think I have no interest in automobiles. But, you're wrong.

In fact one of the first things I turn to when I get the Champion each week is David Simister's motoring column.

It's just that I simply cannot afford to buy – or more particularly, run – the kind of car I would enjoy – so I continue to enjoy walking and using public transport instead.

But in things like the design, or more properly the styling, of many modern vehicles, the reactionary me does tend to come to the fore.

My trouble these days is that I'm simply not up to the exact terminology of many of today's vehicles.

SUV – well I know what it stands for but for the life of me cannot generally see what is 'sporting' about the things.

In the olden days you had saloons and estate cars and if you wanted to go off road, the good old Land Rover.

Now, apparently the world and it's mum need four-by-fours to negotiate the tricky journey through wind, snow and high water on the safari to Tesco's.

And good luck to them if they can afford it.

But these days manufacturers seem to be vying to produce the ugliest, most aggressive looking vehicles – which when push comes to shove still on the whole do little more than the old Mini, Austin Cambridge or Vauxhall Viva.

They take their owners to work, their children to school, cope with the weekly shop and the family on days out and occasionally on holiday.

Why then do so-called stylists (and the folk who buy their efforts) have to make them appear so intimidating?

It doesn't even work. I know the folk who drive them are just the same as those I meet in the pub, on the street or in the supermarket. They don't fool me.

If they want to appear to resemble characters from the Mafia, well fine.

But whether their plug ugly vehicle is new or second hand, personally I would have thought carefully about the fact that a better bog standard saloon, hatchback or estate would have cost less to buy – and almost certainly to run too.

Mind you, my real dislike are those 'Tonka Toy' so-called off-roaders often with those silly (and very dangerous) bull bars on the front.

Quite obviously they are for those who wish they could have a Range Rover but cannot afford one.

Trouble is, they end up looking not macho but simply daft.

A bit like the fashion of a decade or so ago which saw young women dressed in three-quarter length drab skirts and Doc Martins. If they had been old enough to remember Olive Oyl in the Popeye cartoons they might have thought twice.

Or the fashion for black leggings and boots which make their wearers dead ringers for risqué comedian Max Wall.

I think David Simister is right, in that 'ordinary' saloons have lost out in our car parks to these symbols of silliness.

I just hope though that he is wrong in saying the saloon is dead.

Not dead, but sleeping I hope. Until the day this silly fad is itself buried and forgotten.

Heather's close shave for charity

by Holly Rummens

A MANAGER at the Walton Centre suffered a close shave after undergoing a hair-raising challenge in aid of charity.

Heather Bennett, medical human resources manager, at the Walton Centre NHS Foundation Trust, volunteered to have her hair shaved off in the hospital's reception area in front of colleagues, patients and visitors.

Ms Bennett raised more than £2,000 for the specialist neuroscience trust's Home from Home appeal, all money will be used for relatives' accommodation and extra rehabilitation facilities.

Heather, 42, said: "I decided to do this long before Jessie J. I've always wanted to do it, but I've never built up the courage to do it until now."

"The fact it was for such a great cause made it a lot easier. Also, the thought of my family not being around at a time when you could be vulnerable and poorly would be the worst thing, so relatives' accommodation is a fantastic idea."

Heather, from Goodleigh Place, St Helens, added: "I was excited but nervous in the morning; as the cape went on my heart started pounding; but once I passed the point of no return I settled down. It was really strange seeing everyone's faces and their reactions.

"It's a bit of a shock every time I get a glimpse of myself, but I don't mind being bald. It was all worth it for the money raised, I can't believe I have raised over £2,000. Everyone has been so generous and supportive."

CHILDREN'S TV star Dominic 'Dom' Wood has teamed up with the Royal Horticultural Society to call on school teachers to nominate their star pupils for the 2013 RHS Young School Gardener of the Year award before the deadline May 18.

As gardening is proposed to be added to the 2014 school curriculum, it is the perfect opportunity to celebrate horticultural skills within young people.

Many schools from across the North West are involved in the event and approximately 30 of the schools entered are from Sefton and Merseyside.

Dom, who has just enrolled in a horticultural course at RHS Garden Wisley, said: "In my own experience, gardening at school helps pupils grow in so many ways and it's something I feel so passionate about."

"There's a wave of public awareness at the moment about the huge range of benefits that gardening at school can bring to a student's wellbeing and development."

"The RHS Young School Gardener of the Year award isn't simply a celebration of gardening flair in pupils," said Dom, "it's about raising awareness and inspiring more students to pick up a trowel and get growing - so, teachers of the UK: nominate your best gardening pupils now!"

Schools that successfully nominate finalists will receive up to £500 worth of gardening vouchers and tools to develop outdoor projects. The overall winner will get to spend a day at their nearest RHS Garden, working alongside RHS gardeners and receive family tickets to either RHS Flower Show Tatton Park or RHS Hampton Court Palace Flower Show 2014. Runners-up will also get a personal tour of an RHS Garden.

School staff and teachers are invited to nominate inspiring pupils by simply filling out a short form at www.rhs.org.uk/schoolgardening by 18 May.

A shortlist of 16 pupils, from four age categories, will then be given digital cameras for their schools to make videos describing why they should be named RHS Young School Gardener of the Year 2013.

Family's heartfelt plea over missing pet dog

Report by Holly Rummens

A LOCAL family are desperately trying to find their lost dog after he went missing almost 2 weeks ago.

Chang is a male sandy coloured Shih Tzu with a black muzzle, who went missing on Saturday 20th April between 3 – 4pm on Linacre Road, Litherland close to the Red Lion public house.

The family pet was bought for their mother while she was fit and healthy as a present from all of her daughters, however eight months later their mother was diagnosed with cancer and was suddenly taken away from them.

This left their dad devastated and for weeks he would refuse to leave the house and take Chang out for a walk. Eventually the family convinced their father to take their family pet out and started to see a slow improvement within their dad.

Now that Chang is missing their father believes he has let his wife down and the family are worried that if Chang is not found soon their father will start slipping into depression.

Chang has gone missing.

The family are offering a £500 reward for the safe return of Chang and would appreciate any one coming forward with information about the missing dog. You can call them on 07736 915 950 or 0151 384 4632.

Grant funding advice for firms

A FREE event is to be held to help businesses of all sizes find out about potential grant funding and support.

Representatives from Merseyside Special Investment Fund (MSIF) will also be on hand to highlight a wide range of financial programmes.

Green waste fee would be 'unfair' to residents

Report by Ollie Cowan

RESIDENTS have reacted angrily to a move by Sefton Council to consider charging for the collection of green waste.

The plans, which are under consultation until June 14, had previously come under attack from Birkdale Lib Dem Councillor Simon Shaw.

However, following an article printed in the Champion on May 1, residents have written in to voice their concerns over the plans and apparent lack of notice. Carol Rooney, from Aintree, told our reporter that people across the borough simply cannot afford the cost of a service which is only used for six months of the year.

"The collections are fortnightly so they are only used for half of the year," said Carol.

"Even then people don't always need to use those green bins so you'll be paying for a service that you don't always use - nobody is going to want to do that."

"I was horrified when I heard of these plans and I just think it will cause more people to dump rubbish rather than pay for a service that used to be free."

"The first I heard was when my mother, who lives in a different ward, received a letter about the consultation. I have yet to get one and had to ask."

Sefton Council say they have sent consultation letters out to around 15% of households across the borough.

A spokesman for Sefton Council said: "As part of the ongoing consultation on Green Waste collections, residents have been informed about this through a number of channels."

"There is an online consultation form to fill in on the Sefton Council website which has been extensively reported in the local media."

"Details on the consultation have been delivered through a leaflet drop to at least 15% of households that currently receive the green waste collection service, about 4,200 properties."

"These leaflets have also been delivered to 1,000 households that currently do not use the service and posters have been put up in libraries and leisure centres across the borough."

"The consultation informs current service users of the possibility of introducing charging for the collection of green waste, gauges the reaction to charging for this service and identifies the level of charge that residents would be willing to pay."

"It runs until June 14 and for anyone to take part please visit www.sefton.gov.uk."

Health watchdog chair appointed

Report by Ollie Cowan

A CHAIRMAN has finally been appointed for new health and social care watchdog in Sefton.

Healthwatch Sefton is the new independent consumer champion for health and social care. There is a Local Healthwatch in every borough across England, and Healthwatch Sefton has taken over responsibilities from the Sefton Local Involvement Network (LINK).

It aims to bring together the views and experiences of Sefton residents to improve health and social care services. Healthwatch Sefton will remain independent whilst challenging local providers and working in partnership to improve frontline services.

Maureen Kelly, the

newly-appointed Chair of Healthwatch Sefton says she is looking forward to working with local organisations and individuals to ensure they are represented and their voices are heard.

"I am very excited to be taking up this new role as chair of Healthwatch Sefton.

"I have lived in Sefton for most of my life and feel that it is a privilege to be able to represent the views of fellow Sefton residents in the very important area of health and social care which can make such a difference to our quality of life."

Maureen is also Chief Executive of Neurosupport and represents Sefton residents on the board of governors at the Liverpool Women's Hospital.

"Working in this area has helped me to realise the importance of timely up to date information and the need to have someone to talk to at significant times in your life when, maybe for the first time, you come in contact with health and social care services and need to find the correct route through the system".

Chance for youngsters to spend time with cathedral choir

LIVERPOOL Cathedral is inviting youngsters to spend an afternoon with its choristers as they perform a public performance.

The Young Voices Cathedral Choir taster day is taking place on the 11 May between 1-4pm and is open to girls and boys between the ages of 7-10.

The children will get a chance to meet the current choristers and get a behind the scenes tour of the music facilities as well as learning first hand what it is like to be in the choir.

Participants will be able to rehearse with the choir and will be given the opportunity to sing Evensong, along side them at a special public performance at 3pm.

No musical experience is required for the event only a love of singing. This is a free event although it is necessary to book in advance.

Stephen Mannings, Assistant Director of Music at Liverpool Cathedral and who will lead the taster session said: "This is a great opportunity for young people to try something different, meet new friends and learn new music."

"The chance to perform for the public at the Cathedral should be a unique experience, and something that I hope they will always remember."

Owners of dirty chippy in court

A LITHERLAND fish and chip shop owner has been fined for having dirty premises.

Michael Fu, 47, of Dover Road, Maghull, and operator of Litherland Fish and Chips, Sefton Road, pleaded guilty to three charges of food hygiene offences at Sefton Magistrates on May 9.

Jane Beatty prosecuting on behalf of Sefton Council told the court that environmental health officers made an unannounced visit to the take-away on December 8 last year and "noticed a number of things".

A very muddy bike was propped up against one of the walls in the potato room, she said. And also a motor bike was in there which was preventing full access to the room.

Walls were dirty, the toilet system was degraded, light switches were dirty, the oven hob was very dirty and the surrounding area was dirty.

She said that a wooden work top had bare wood to the edges and was not easy to clean, as was the area around the sink basin.

She said the premises have a history of "poor compliance" dating back to 2007, when it was implicated in a case of salmonella.

In 2009 there was a report that raw food was kept with cooked food in the fridge and high risk foods were being stored at room temperature.

"There was a lack of knowledge of food hygiene amongst staff", she said.

However a recent visit on April 30 showed that "there had been an improvement", the motorbike had been removed, and the area had been cleaned to a "satisfactory standard".

Representing the chip shop owner, Huw Edwards said that "Mr Fu is extremely embarrassed and ashamed that he has to come before you."

He stressed that actual food preparation took

A motorbike, seen covered in plastic, was stored next to the potatoes place on stainless steel work-tops where "there were no problems."

Adding: "Where the food is prepared is surely more important."

Telling the court that in 30 years in the take-away food business, working first for his parents and then for 14 years on his own, Mr Fu had never been prosecuted for food hygiene offences.

Fining him a total of £1,500 for the three offences and ordering him to pay costs of £800 along with a victim surcharge of £80, the magistrates said that when sentencing they had to think of "punishment", "deterrent", and of "protecting the public".

They said to Mr Fu that he was right to be ashamed, adding that because "there is a history of non-compliance, you only have yourself to blame."

Baby rhinos exploring the grounds of their enclosure.

Welcome additions to safari park's rhino family

AFTER a lengthy winter, the new additions to the rhino family at Knowsley Safari Park can finally make the most of their 100 acre enclosure.

With the spring months showing more promising temperatures, the trio of rhino calves, Njiri, Thabo and Nonu have been encouraged by the keepers to head out and explore the grounds.

The calves were all born to the same dad, 18 year old bull Shaka but each have different mothers. Each weighing a massive 75 stone when they were just six months old, they were all given their names to celebrate their bloodlines.

They are a result of the Knowsley Safari's breeding programme and park staff are particularly excited about these births as they will bring much needed diversity to the rhino gene pool and will ultimately help boost the rhino population should they ever become extinct in the wild.

Lehman looks ahead to Sefton senior challenge

Report by Henry James

TOM Lehman enjoyed the finest moment of his career on England's Golf Coast and now the American is aiming for more success when he comes to Southport for this year's Senior Open Championship.

Lehman won The 1996 Open Championship at Royal Lytham & St Annes and he will be hoping to capture the senior version of the Claret Jug just a few miles down England's north-west coastline when the Championship visits Royal Birkdale Golf Club for the first time, from July 25-28.

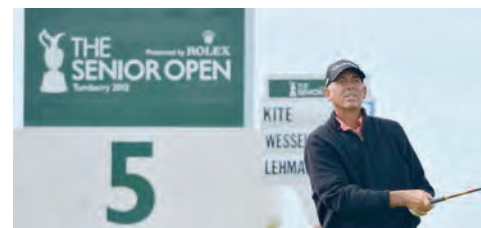

The 2006 United States Ryder Cup captain will be part of a cast of Major Champions playing in the 27th edition of The Senior Open Championship, along with iconic names such as defending champion Fred Couples, Bernhard Langer, Sandy Lyle, Tom Watson and Ian Woosnam.

Lehman, who won the 2010 US Senior PGA Championship, finished tied tenth in last year's Senior Open Championship at Turnberry, but he hopes Royal Birkdale's challenging links can inspire him to success this summer.

"There are a whole bunch of courses right along that coastline that are spectacular, but they are all different," said Lehman.

"Royal Birkdale brings the slopes, the bumps and the humps more into play, and the tall grass. It is a different look and it is one that everyone likes."

After winning the US Champions Tour Money List and Player of the Year Award in 2011, and the Charles Schwab Cup last year, Lehman is now targeting another Senior Major to add to his glittering CV.

Tom Lehman ©Gettyimages Code NA

He said: "Royal Birkdale is a great course, with amazing dunes. Every links course is a little bit different, and a little bit the same. This one has a bit more drama with all the stuff going on around the holes."

Australian Mike Harwood also returns to the north-west coast hoping to be inspired by his own fond memories of the area.

Harwood finished runner up to Ian Baker-Finch in The 1991 Open Championship at Royal Birkdale, in the same year he won the last of his five European Tour titles in the European Open at Walton Heath.

"I've got good memories of Royal Birkdale and sad memories too," he said. "At that time in my career I wasn't really expecting to come second, I was playing that well."

"But, I'm now 54 and if someone said to me you'd finish second in The Open, I'd say that's unbelievable."

MEDICAL DIGITAL INFRA-RED THERMAL IMAGING

Safe breast screening for all women

Incidents of breast cancer in women under fifty is at a record high. New cases of breast cancer diagnosed in younger women has risen by a massive eleven percent in recent years.

Not surprisingly these new cases are found in women who have no protection under the NHS routine breast screening program. In the UK, routine screening with mammography is limited to women who are fifty and over. The program as it stands does not include screening for younger women because of concerns about the reliability of the results in this age group. It is known that younger women have denser breast tissue and that mammography is limited in finding abnormalities in these cases and may miss developing cancers in these younger women.

It is blatantly obvious that we need to expand the screening program to include women of a younger age to prevent the new cases of breast cancer continuing to escalate, but as mammography is limited by age and breast density it is time to employ a safe method of screening that is suitable for women of all ages.

Medical Digital Infra-red Thermal Imaging is not limited by age or breast density and is gaining popularity all over the world as the safe choice of breast screening for concerned women.

Mammography was introduced in to the UK in 1987 after the Forrest Report concluded that after studying two randomised trials, the American Health Insurance Plan (HIP) and the Swedish Two Counties Trial that mammography was the best screening procedure to introduce as the routine screening program for women over fifty in the UK.

That was 27 years ago and as we all know medical technology has advanced beyond belief. Thermography makes use of these advances and employees up to date diagnostic programs to assist our doctors in the detection of breast abnormalities in all women. After trials involving more than 300,000 women and over eight hundred peer reviewed papers written on the subject, thermography offers women a safe choice in breast screening.

Medical Digital Infra-red Thermal Imaging (MDITI) is not a replacement for mammography but serves to offer a screening procedure for all women including those vulnerable younger women who up to now have no routine screening program under the NHS. This opens up the doors for the millions of women under the age of fifty to have a safe method of breast screening.

MDITI is a safer method of screening and offers a non contact, no painful and dangerous squashing of breasts, radiation free screening procedure for ALL women and men.

Housing group seeks tradesmen

Report by David Raven

A BUILDING and maintenance company is looking for 58 new tradesmen across Sefton.

The Sovini Group, made up of One Vision Housing, Pine Court Housing, Sovini homes and Sovini Property Services – will be employing professionals from a variety of trades.

They are seeking 28 joiners, seven electricians, eight painters, three gas engineers and 12 manual workers.

The Sovini Group is recognised as an award winning employer after One Vision Housing was named Sunday Times number one non-profit organisation to work for in both 2012 and 2013.

Since bringing repairs and maintenance staff in-house in September 2010, the property services arm of Sovini has already recruited over 230 staff. Director of property services,

Phil Pemberton, said: "It is part of the Sovini mission to create training and job opportunities for the people of Sefton and beyond."

"So it's great that we have the capacity to take on such a high number of permanent staff as a result of the growing demand for our building and property services."

Sovini will be showcasing the vacancies and providing opportunities for individuals to apply at their recruitment exhibitions, which will take place at Aintree Racecourse on Thursday, May 16 and Monday, May 20 from 4pm to 8pm.

Anyone interested in any of the roles or hearing more about working at Sovini, should attend either of the two events, both taking place in the Princess Royal Suite, 4th Floor, Princes Royal Stand, Aintree Racecourse.

For more information about the event or Sovini, visit www.sovini.co.uk or call 0300 365 1111.

Ian Gardiner and Ian Wilson are aiming to raise £5,000 Code NA

Duo to stop off at lifeboat station in 7,000 mile bid to raise £5k for RNLI

By Danielle Thompson

TWO fundraisers will visit Crosby's lifeboat station as part of their mission to travel 7,000 miles in a month to raise £5,000 for the sea rescue charity.

Ian Gardiner and Ian Wilson from Norfolk will visit all 172 UK mainland Royal National Lifeboat Institute stations, including Crosby, in the fundraising mission – and hope to become voluntary coastguards themselves when they return.

The RNLI responded to over 8,000 incidents in 2012 both on the coastline and inland waterways, including helping communities in flooded areas.

Over 4,000 volunteers crew the boats around the UK and in the Republic of Ireland.

Ian Gardiner said "The RNLI is one of the many organisations which makes Britain great, we want to raise money in order to support the organisation but also raise awareness of the incredible work they do on a daily basis often in extraordinary circumstances."

Ian Wilson added: "You never know where or when you might need their help, they rescue on average 20 people per day and provide the lifeguards on our beaches as well as rescuing people at sea."

The pair are paying for the journey themselves to ensure that every penny will go to the fund.

At each station crew members are asked to sign RNLI prints and photographs which will be auctioned at the end of the trip to raise extra money.

To follow their journey you can follow them on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ii4rnli.

Prime date for Lynda

Report by Henry James

CROSBY-born writer Lynda La Plante, the creator of Prime Suspect, has been confirmed as the latest interviewee in the Liverpool In Conversation series.

La Plante also wrote Trial & Retribution, and Above Suspicion and will take to the stage of St George's Hall Concert Room on Tuesday, September 10 at 7.30pm to share stories about her life and career as well as her favourite pieces of music which will be performed live by five separate music acts.

La Plante, who left Liverpool to study at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art (RADA) and began her career as an actress appearing with the Royal Shakespeare Company as well as in popular TV series' such as Z Cars and The Professionals, and penned a breakthrough script in 1983 when she created and the six-part robbery series Widows for Thames Television. After this initial success La Plante became highly sought after as a crime writer and since signing her first book deal in 1987 has written a raft of successful novels including the Cold and Anna Travis series. However it is probably the creation of DCI Jane Tennison and Prime Suspect for which she is best known.

Fond memories

Lynda La Plante said: "I always enjoy returning to Liverpool, it is a city which holds so many fond memories for me and I am very much looking forward to my In Conversation evening at the magnificent St George's Hall."

Other people involved in the event, which has been organised by Little Atom Productions, are Paul McGann, David Morrissey and Stephen Graham.

Gemma Aldcroft of Little Atom said: "We've been in talks with Lynda's publisher for some time now and we're absolutely delighted that she's agreed, not least because her latest novel will just have been released when she takes part in the series."

"We're very lucky to have secured her at this time."

Lynda La Plante's latest novel Wrongful Death is due for release in early September. Those who attend the evening will be able to ask questions to the author.

Bear Grylls with the Merseyside scouts Andrea Pickersgill and Stephen Kennedy
Code1058786

Chief Scout lands in Liverpool for whistle-stop tour as he chats to Champ reporter Holly Rummens

BEAR Grylls, chief leader to over 58,000 scouts in the North West, took to the air this weekend to help encourage scouting – but first on his agenda in Liverpool was to take a closer look at bushes.

On Sunday morning (May 12) his helicopter landed at Festival Gardens, where hundreds of Sefton scouts cheered and clapped him, with their camera phones at the ready, eager to meet their adventure hero.

But they were made to wait several minutes amid much laughter, while Bear scurried off to do what he does best, making the most of his natural resources by relieving himself in the bushes, claiming it had been a long helicopter ride!

He joined 13,000 Merseyside scouts on Saturday (May 11) to help break the Guinness world record of the longest handshake relay, which is the official sign of scout friendship.

As part of his Bear in the Air tour, he visited 13 separate events in the North West over the weekend, to help encourage more adults to volunteer for scouting. Bear and everyone at the event had a wild time, high fiving and blowing giant bubbles, but the survival expert didn't hold back on grabbing the microphone and taking to the stage.

He said: "I am super excited to be here, Scout camps like this are incredible and every time I drop in to visit, it just reminds me how much I love everything about scouting."

Bear Grylls gives a speech

Code1058783

Real name Edward Grylls, but nicknamed 'Teddy Bear' by his sister, Bear managed to beat the world record with 50 more scouts than the previous attempt.

Speaking to the Champion, Bear said: "As a child I was quite shy, not very confident and not a very good scout, so by taking part in these weekends it is such an inspiration to me."

"Scouting is like shining a light on opportunity and giving kids the chance of an adventure and every kid in the world wants to be a part of that, that's why we are growing so fast."

Katie, aged 16, an Explorer scout from Crosby, said: "It was great to meet Bear as he's such a huge inspiration to me. Scouting's all about adventure, so its great having someone like Bear join in."

Mike Hussey, a Scout Leader from Aintree, said: "Volunteering as a Scout Leader is one of the best things I've ever done, there's nothing more fulfilling than helping young people get the most out of life."

SAVE £500 WITH BELLWAY HOMES' SUSTAINABLE HOMES AT HAWTHORN PARK

Bellway Homes is well aware of how expensive moving house can be and to ease the expense, ensures its properties are built to the latest building regulations, saving homebuyers up to £500 per annum* at Hawthorn Park in Crosby.

Electricity, gas and insulation all contribute to the running cost of a home, with older properties using much more energy than new build, which results in energy wastage and costs the homeowner more money.

Built to a high specification, Bellway Homes' properties all boast Band A high efficiency boilers which heat the home and provide hot water. Managed by a thermostat, this allows the heat and hot water to come on only when required, saving approximately £100 per year.

The better insulated your home, the less money you'll spend heating it. With Bellway Homes, all properties have fully insulated cavity walls which keep the heat in, saving you up to £140 per year in heating bills. Built with a minimum loft insulation of 300mm, this can also save you £180 every year.

With lighting accounting for 8% of a typical household's energy bills, reducing your lighting is one of the easiest ways to save money in the home. 100% of Bellway's light fittings are low energy, ensuring you benefit from this saving.

Jenny Bell, sales director designate at Bellway Homes, comments: "Homebuyers are always looking for ways to save money on household bills in the current climate. At Hawthorn Park our homes are built to the very latest building regulations which mean the properties are fuel efficient, saving homeowners up to £500 each year.

"Compared to older homes, Bellway properties are much more energy efficient and therefore cost less to run, which is an attractive proposition for prospective purchasers. Buy now at Hawthorn Park and enjoy living in a stylish, yet sustainable home."

Hawthorn Park is Bellway's latest development located on South Parade in Crosby, offering a range of 4 bedroom homes. Prices start from £274,995. For further information, please call Hawthorn Park on 0151 928 8671. Alternatively visit www.bellway.co.uk.

HELP TO BUY.

It's just one way Dorbcrest can help you buy.

Young professional buyers looking for a new home in Ormskirk could find they could soon be living at one of the most sought after addresses in the area with help from Dorbcrest Homes.

Selected homes at Cramford and Cramlington House are now available through the new Government-backed shared equity scheme 'Help to Buy' which was announced at the recent budget. Under the scheme purchasers only need a relatively small 5% deposit which could be as low as £9,125 and a mortgage of only 75%. The Government lend the remaining 20% as an equity loan which is repayable within 25 years or upon the sale of the home. This means you can buy from only £146,000 instead of £182,500 but still own 100% of the home from day one.

Adele Morey, Sales Manager explains:

"Since launching the scheme we've already had lots of interest from people who want to live at Ormskirk's most prestigious address but for some affordability is an issue, especially if it's their first home. As a local family company we're delighted to offer the 'Help to Buy' scheme, which will give purchasers the help they need. First time buyers taking up the scheme can also benefit from a great mortgage rate too as well as having their stamp duty paid. But we have limited availability so those who want to take advantage should contact us without delay."

Cramford and Cramlington House are the last phase of this unique development. They bring together traditional architectural styling and contemporary apartment living, each having 15 individually designed properties with gated private parking and ease of access via a lift to all floors. Each home has a feeling of light and space which comes from open plan lounges with bay windows, while luxurious bathrooms and en-suites with fittings of the highest quality, such as Porcelanosa and Roca, echo the design detailing throughout.

The development is perfectly placed just a few minutes walk from the town centre with all its restaurants, bars and cafes. You're also within easy reach of the motorway network giving you access to Manchester, Liverpool and beyond.

For those who don't require the Help to Buy scheme, there are other ways Dorbcrest can help make buying a home easier and more affordable. Their experts will help you find the scheme that suits you best - and whatever your situation, even if you have a house to sell they will be able to find a way that suits you.

Turn your dream into a reality with quality new homes at affordable prices

If you're dreaming of owning your own home, but fear you'll never be able to save for a deposit, then check out the range of stunning properties that Keepmoat has on offer across Merseyside.

The highly popular The Parks development at Anfield and the Regency Park scheme in Bootle both offer a fabulous range of two, three and four bedroom homes with affordable price tags. And with the new government-backed Help to Buy scheme available at both developments, getting the keys to that dream property is easier than you think.

Help to Buy is a fantastic new finance scheme that sees 20% of the property price covered by an equity loan, which can be paid back at any time, or on the sale of your home. That means you only need to save a 5% deposit and find a mortgage for 75% of the property price.

At The Parks, you'll find our spacious Tudor-style homes with four bedrooms across three storeys. This fabulous family home boasts head-turning looks on the inside and the outside, and features two living areas, spacious open plan kitchen-diner, master bedroom with en suite, generously sized bedrooms and an attractive garden.

Thanks to Help to Buy these properties start from as little as £111,195 (normal price £138,995).

Better still, Plot 155 is Keepmoat's Star Buy property – meaning it comes ready for you to move into, with extras already fitted including carpets, curtains, blinds and light fittings, and front and rear gardens already laid with turf.

At Regency Park in Bootle you'll also discover space and style in abundance. The beautiful three bedroom, end terrace Lilly property starts at just £102,395 with Help to Buy (normal price £127,995). Plot 135 is Keepmoat's Star Buy home and comes with a host of added extras making it ready to live in.

Jen Brown, Regional Sales Manager at Keepmoat, said: "Both The Parks in Anfield and Regency Park in Bootle are proving incredibly popular with buyers thanks to their superb locations and the quality of properties on offer.

"Both developments offer two, three and four bedroom homes, suited to everyone from couples taking their first steps on the housing ladder to families looking for room to grow.

to choose the winner of the People's Prize, given to the most popular work on display at the end of the exhibition. The winner receives the opportunity to exhibit at the gallery and a £150 exhibition fee.

Councillor David Sudworth, portfolio holder for leisure, said: "The exhibition is a highlight of the Chapel Gallery's calendar and is growing in popularity every year."

"It is an ideal opportunity for anyone who has a talent for art to get their work on public display."

"So if you feel that you'd like to have that chance, pick up an application form and have a go."

Large scale two-dimensional and three-dimensional works must be submitted by photograph only. The gallery should be in receipt of these submissions by Friday, June 28. They should also include a completed entry form and a first class stamp. See the application form for details.

The Chapel Gallery is open Tuesday to Saturday (10am to 4.30pm). Free admission.

Material of Scouse musical misjudged

Review by Jenny Robson

• Scottie Road the Musical
• Epstein Theatre, Liverpool
• Saturday, May 11

THE auditorium was packed with people as they waited anxiously for the curtain to go up on this Scouse musical.

Almost half an hour later than scheduled the over-the-top, pyjama-clad, Ugg boot wearing characters of Caz and Britney (Gillian Hardie and Keddy Sutton) sauntered down the aisles with their hair in rollers as the forerunner to this "one night only" show.

This was the beginning of what was billed as a "musical misadventure" telling the story of their life-changing journey from Primark to Prison. Caz and Britney had been convicted of "assault with a Primark bargain" for which they had been incarcerated at Winwick. Now they were telling their story at a press conference – with in-your-face humour and attitude.

Good pieces of choreography were behind a number of dance routines which complemented many well-known songs from some of our favourite musicals.

The difference was that these two talented girls had written the show themselves but had changed the well-known lyrics to those of their own with a distinct scouse twist.

Thus ... All That Jazz (Chicago) became My Mate Caz. Master of the House (Les Miserables) became Maker of the Scouse. Glory, Glory Hallelujah became Glory, Glory Wacker Quacker.

There was a spoof panto scene; you know the one ... she's behind you – where – behind you. And a skit on the Wizard of Oz. Eithne Brown, a well-known figure on Liverpool stages, also entertained as a special guest.

Both Gillian and Keddy have very strong, powerful voices and obviously have an abundance of talent which is why it is such a shame that they felt they had to resort to the grotesque rudeness of jokes about menstruation, Tampax, porn playing-cards and other unmentionables. This toe-curling, squirming material is mundane and quite unnecessary. The fact that there were microphone problems didn't help, either.

Score: 5/10 – Great talent but misjudged material

Players appealing for new members

Report by Ron Ellis

MEMBERS of Southport's Houghton Players Gilbert & Sullivan are taking time out from G & S this summer and are tackling a whole new repertoire, in honour of the Diamond Jubilee of the Queen's coronation year.

They will be performing excerpts from Edward German's light opera, Merrie England at Holy Trinity church hall in Southport on Saturday, June 29. The evening will also feature items from other light operettas such as Chu Chin Chow and The Arcadians.

Merrie England is set in Elizabethan times and follows the adventures of Queen Elizabeth I and the Earl of Essex.

It includes some memorable music such as the Queen's song O peaceful England and the stirring Yeomen of England, sung by Essex.

Auditions for solo roles are currently taking place and the society are appealing for new members who might like to audition for a solo role, or sing with the chorus.

Rehearsals are on Monday evenings at the Scarisbrick New Road Baptist Church Hall in Southport (Southbank Rd entrance). Please contact the secretary, Diane Mackley on 01772 815508 for more details, or check the society's website: www.houghtonplayers.com

Explore the best of the UK with Wallace & Gromit

Wallace & Gromit will be taking to the road to explore the best of the UK in a new Visit England TV advertisement showing this summer which is aimed at catching the imagination of Brits and inspiring everyone to take their holidays at home this year. And what better way to do so than on a coach tour?

Going by coach is the best way to enjoy and discover some of the great sights and attractions to be found across the UK without the hassle of organising travel bookings, hotels and visits to attractions yourself. There's no driving, worrying about speed cameras or finding somewhere to park. And you won't have to fill up the car with £80 of fuel. Coach tours are not just affordable but offer great value for money too. Most tours are all inclusive with not just travel, hotel accommodation and meals included in the price but also entrance tickets to attractions. There are no hidden costs such as paying for airport parking and airport taxes. Door to door pick ups are now common on many tours. Coach passengers get the personal service of their own driver and the security of being looked after throughout their tour. Something that really appeals to single passengers who love being looked after throughout their tour. Something that really appeals to single passengers who love being part of a group. There's also a huge choice of tours to choose from. Going by coach is the best way to see dramatic scenery whether it's the Peak District, the Yorkshire Dales, the wild west of Ireland, the Scottish Highlands or the seaside - still a great holiday destination. The great vantage point above the hedgerows and other traffic gives the best view of the passing landscape. Coaches are the perfect choice for day trips to attractions and summer garden shows too, as well as for visits to see a top show in London's West End or in the regions. On the road the days of the seaside charabanc are long gone. New coaches now cost upwards of £250,000 and feature reclining seats, air conditioning, double glazed windows and on-board facilities. Unseen elements are quiet cabins and a smooth ride. Of course coach holidays have many additional attributes. Coaches are the greenest travel option in the UK today using six times less energy than planes and cars and two times less energy than trains. Coach travel has the lowest carbon dioxide emissions per passenger of any mode of transport and coaches are also seven times safer per mile than a car. Two in ten people say they are more likely to take holidays in the UK this year. Why not join them and Wallace & Gromit on a coach tour this summer. Visit the website www.findacoachholiday.com to discover more about travel by coach and where to find a coach tour operator near to where you live.

Success for local coach operator at national tourism awards

David Ogden Holidays of St. Helen's was recognised as a finalist at the annual Coach Tourism Awards held May 9th in Liverpool. The annual awards, organised by trade magazine Coach Monthly, recognises excellence across coach tour operators, tourist destinations and attractions, and industry suppliers. David Ogden Holidays was a finalist in the category for Holiday Programme of the Year. This recognises the UK coach operators that operate a programme of UK coach holidays. The judges were looking for a programme that demonstrates innovation and creativity together with a good mix of destinations. Commenting on the company's success, David Ogden says: It was a great honour that our Holiday Programme was recognised, a great deal of time and preparation is put into planning to make sure we are offering our customers a wide range of Holidays and that we are offering something for everyone from Weekend Breaks to Extended Holidays. We are also delighted to be finalists for Coach Operator of the Year for Groups at the upcoming Group Travel Awards in London on June 14. The awards presentation was hosted by the editor of Coach Monthly magazine, Stuart Render, and television presenter and travel and tourism expert Judith Chalmers. "The Coach Tourism Awards is the only national awards scheme to focus specifically on the coach tourism community", says Stuart Render. "David Ogden Holidays was up against the best of the best coach operators in the country so this is therefore a well deserved and a significant achievement. Our winners and finalists are at the forefront in delivering excellence across all sectors of the industry, helping to raise the quality of customer service and quality across coach operators, destinations, visitor attractions and tourism industry suppliers."

David has a bee in his bonnet when it comes to new Government rules

IT WAS on a fine summer's afternoon I discovered perhaps the most dangerous driving distraction known to man. The Government's answered calls – although not on a mobile phone while at the wheel, obviously – to up the penalty for those caught texting while driving to ninety quid. Rightly so, I reckon, because trying to spk 2 ur m8 abt 2nite while at the helm of an Audi A4 in the outside lane is, in anyone's book, a recipe for disaster. Unfortunately, the Ministry of Transport hasn't yet found ways to legislate against some equally attention-grabbing, but rather less avoidable, motoring distractions. Nanny State could, for example, do something about those lorries you always find conveniently parked up in fields alongside motorways and dual carriageways, but of far more pressing concern are the appalling spelling, grammatical and punctual errors on an alarming number of them. One, at the side of the A1, reads "Believe ON the Lord Jesus Christ", which constantly provokes in-car debate about whether it's best to believe while stood, quite literally, on the son of God. Another, plugging a car care specialist, proclaims "Diesel's repaired". Is it? Trust me, there are few things more dangerous while driving on a dual carriageway than being forced to consult my imaginary copy of Eats, Shoots and Leaves. There's also the unavoidable motoring horror of the sneeze, which not only blinds you entirely for half a second or so but, if it catches you off-guard, leaves the inside of your windscreen covered in snot (interior windscreen wipers, by the way, could be a great suggestion for anyone thinking of entering Dragons' Den). Driving while preoccupied by a recent bereavement is a no-no too, and if you're a man, there's the added distraction of billboards with pictures of Keira Knightley on them. All of these however, pale into comparison with the distraction I encountered on that gloriously sunny afternoon in the North Yorkshire countryside. I was driving a bright yellow Triumph Spitfire – read badly built Mazda MX-5 if you haven't done your GCSEs yet – down the country lanes, lapping up the rays, when a bee landed on the inside of the windscreen. Seconds later, it flew off and landed straight on my chest. All the advanced driving lessons in the world can't help prepare you for a spot of motoring melissophobia. How I didn't crash someone else's prized classic sports car, I will never know! What's more, while bees are fairly benign creatures which only sting when they're threatened, I dread the day when a wasp – a useless species which stings small children just for fun – decides to join me for the drive. The Government don't just need to clamp down on texting drivers. They need to ban wasps as well.

Bootle stung by last wicket partnership

FIRWOOD Bootle experienced an exasperating weekend losing their Liverpool & District Competition Premier League match against Fleetwood Hesketh on Saturday while their ECB National Club Championship tie with Oxtun was postponed on Sunday without a ball being bowled, the game now scheduled to be replayed this Sunday.

Bootle put Fleetwood into bat on Saturday and their batsmen struggled with the exception of Andrew Watts, who made 54. But the score on 140-9 Bootle allowed the last pair, Tom Wareing and Paul Mullen, to add an unbroken 46 for the tenth wicket, allowing them to declare on 186-9 after 55 overs.

Bootle's first four wickets went down for 41, but Michael Gill (32) and Will Purser compiled a partnership of 74. When Purser was eighth man out, bowled by Mullen for 66, Bootle's last chance had gone and they were dismissed for 146 in the 32nd over, a dispiriting defeat by 40 runs.

Bootle host Highfield on Saturday.

Jack's the lad as Northern crush Leigh

JACK Boardman took seven wickets as Northern dismissed Leigh for just 73 to set up an emphatic nine wicket victory in the Liverpool & District Cricket Competition Premier League.

Boardman finished with the remarkable bowling figures of seven wickets for 25 runs in nine overs with Hamish Kingston top scoring for Leigh with just 16.

Openers Stephen Lucas and Mark Walling scored 19 and 36 not out in reply as Northern eased to victory.

Southport & Birkdale recorded a five wicket home win over Ormskirk. The visitors were asked to bat and declared after 35.3 overs on 177-6, with Gary Knight (87) top scoring and Andy Baybutt making 39 whilst Craig Todd took 2-25 with the ball.

In reply S&B lost four early wickets to leave them 47-4, but a magnificent 122 run fifth wicket partnership between Logan Weston (92*) and Scott Lees (49) turned the game on its head as S&B reached 181-5 in 40.2 overs, to wrap up victory with Chris Smith taking 3-31.

Hightown lost by 100 runs at Lytham, an unbeaten 127 from Lancashire reserve keeper Alex Davies helped the hosts declare on 220-7 with Ian Sutcliffe taking 4-65. In reply Sutcliffe (24) and D'Arcy Short (55) gave Hightown some hope, but Fayaz Ughradar with 6-14 soon put paid to that as the visitors slipped from 101-5 to 120 all out.

In the First Division Ainsdale travelled to Rainford and wrapped up a six wicket victory. Dave Tully (89) and John Dotters (52) gave the hosts a flying start (154-1) until a five wicket haul from Mal Swift (5-69) managed to peg them back (223-9 dec). In reply former Indian Test batsman Wasim Jaffer (112* inc 11x4s and 5x6s) scored his second successive century and Adam Friar also finished unbeaten on 54 to see the visitors home on 224-4.

Formby were unlucky to have won at home against Orrell Red Triangle. Australian Aaron Flaherty (73) top scored in the hosts' total of 155, with Andrew Mercer (5-34) and Mark Waddington (5-68) taking the bowling honours. In reply the visitors slipped to 16-4 but thit back through opener Mark Friend (76*) and last man John Waddington (7*) to win by a single wicket (158-9) with Jan Gadzina taking 7-66.

This weekend Northern entertain Fleetwood, Hightown host S&B, and Maghull are at home to Wallasey.
